The L.A. Garden Show being held May 6 and 7 is an excellent opportunity to experience this community treasure once again or for the first time. This year's event, themed "An Entertaining Garden," will celebrate entertaining in the garden and in the home.

Be entertained with inspirational garden displays designed by the best and brightest designers in Southern California, including Nancy Goslee Power, Chris Rosmini, Art Luna and Nick Williams. A variety of unique plants can be purchased, including some from The Arboretum's own collections. A showcase of vendors at the marketplace will offer a variety of must-haves that reflect California lifestyle in the garden and in the home. Plant-related informational lectures and demonstrations will inspire the novice and the expert. The ongoing entertainment, food and children's nature crafts will create a fun-filled weekend.

Visit one of the most beautiful and family-friendly gardens in Southern California. †
